CUTICURA SOAP.

MILLIONS OF WOMEN USE CUTICURA SOAP exclusively for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations and chafings, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative warts, and for many antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women and especially mothers and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. "No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used it to use any other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp, and hair of infants and children. CUTICURA SOAP combines definite emollient properties derived from CUTICURA, the great skin care, with the power of cleansing ingredients, and the most refreshing of flowers. No other medicated soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines, in ONE SOAP AT ONE PRICE, the best skin and complexion soap, the best toilet and best baby soap in the world.

THE NEW FRENCH REGENCY.

This successful and highly popular remedy, as employed in France, Germany, and other countries, has now been introduced into England, and is finding a ready market here. It is a simple and safe remedy for all kinds of skin diseases, and especially for those which are difficult to cure.

THE CHINA MAIL.

ROUND THE GLOBE.

Shoe Polishing Extraordinary.

An electric shoe-polishing machine is in operation at many of the go-ahead cities in the United States. Two holes in a boot are made to receive the paton's feet, the blushing is dropped automatically on the leather on the penny-in-the-slot principle, and then the wish of oval brushes is heard. In a minute and a half both boots are polished to a miraculous—or at any rate an electric—brightness.

A Miser's Meanness.

A noted miser who felt obliged to make a present to a lady, entered a crockery shop for the purpose of making a purchase. Seeing a statuette broken into a dozen pieces, he asked the price. The saleswoman said it was worthless, but he could have it for the cost of the packing in the box. The miser directed it to be sent with his card, to the lady, con ratulating himself that she would imagine it was broken on its way to her. He dropped in to see the effect. The tradesman had carefully wrapped each piece in a separate piece of paper.

Munition Statistics.

Japanese are great at statistics. Lieutenant General Yamaguchi, the Commander of the Japanese troops in North China, has now reported on the ammunition expended by the Japanese troops in the attack on Peking, which, it seems, amounted on August 14th to 18,608 rifle shots, 155 revolver shots, and 3,534 shells. On August 15th, 25,415 rounds of ammunition were fired, and 7,733 rounds on the 16th.

A Royal Dressing Table.

The Duchess of York's dressing-table at York House is a perfect picture of beauty. It is composed entirely of the most delicate chintz, fashioned in the design of cupids, supporting wreaths of white roses, which are the York badge. In the hearts of the flowers there are tiny electric lights, which throw a soft radiance on the large oval mirror. All the brushes, trinket boxes, &c., are made of dead gold, with the Duchess's pet name "May" written across in turquoise and diamonds.

Electric Fish.

The electric fish of the Nile, of which the Egyptians made pictures thousands of years ago, still inhabit the waters of that river. Its electric battery is situated in the skin, and, when viewed with a microscope, is seen to be composed of about 2,000,000 beautifully formed little discs, superimposed upon connected rows of minute compartments, in which are the terminals of nerves.

A Memory Test.

A teacher in a London Board School recently put the boys in a class to a curious test. He chalked on a board the name of the Chinese Minister, "Chih Chen Lai-fong," allowed it to remain for thirty seconds, and then washed the inscription out. He asked the boys to write the name on their slates from memory, and not one was correct. ("Chin-chin" and glue, was "very near it").

Love-Making by Flag-Way.

This, from America, may interest the seafaring community:—A. W. Wockenfogel, an emigrant of sixteen years' standing, came to an end at St. John's Church, Wapping. The bridegroom was the mate of a large steamship, and the bride was a stewardess on a P. & O. boat. The couple first met in London, became engaged, and did not see each other again for six years. During that time their respective vessels passed almost within hailing distance three times—once in the English Channel, when the line was making for Southampton, and the tramp was out for Ceylon, once in the Red Sea, and once in the middle of the Indian Ocean. On the last occasion, the mate's fiancée, having her handkerchief to his as he watched the vessel through a telescope three miles away, he promptly signalled to her in the terse, joky, flag language, "Do not forget." The man on the line who read the signal could not understand it. Neither could the captain. But six months later the mate received a letter at Singapore. "It had travelled half-way round the world, and contained two words, 'I won't'!"

An Ingenious Newsboy.

An instance of ingenuity on the part of a newsboy comes from Chicago. One of the Chicago fraternity hangs a board round his neck, wherein is the legend, "Hush! None is a nuisance. I don't shout my exertions, but I have them all for sale. Buy of me, and discourage shouting." The word "Hush" is printed in very large and very black letters, so that it instantly attracts attention, and the boy is doing quite double the business done by his rivals.

A Smoky Story.

During the volcanic eruption in the Hawaiian Islands last year, the smoke rose to a height of between five and six miles, and then drifted away to the north-east. At a distance of 60 miles from Hawaii, it settled upon the surface of the sea, and was then carried back by the north-east wind to its place of origin, where it arrived a fortnight after its first departure, and covered the entire group of islands with its heavy pall.

Endurance of the Pigeon.

The carrier pigeon, when travelling, never sleeps. If the distance be long, it flies on without stopping to take nutriment, and at last arrives thus exhausted, and almost dying. It can be presented to it, it refuses to eat, contenting itself with drinking a little water, and then sleeping. Two or three hours later it begins to eat with great moderation, and sleeps again immediately afterwards. If it flies on when very prolonged, the flight will proceed in this manner for 48 hours before recovering its normal mode of feeding.

The Art of Diagnosis.

A demonstration was being held at one of the large London hospitals. The object of the lecture was a man of the nervous type—the subject his eyes. "You see, gentlemen," said the demonstrator, "that one pupil is dilated and the other contracted—an important thing to notice in determining which part of the brain is affected." The patient suddenly became aware that the discussion was upon his eyes. "Boggin' your pardon, sir," he blurted out, "but if it's my eyes you mean, one of 'em's a glaws 'un."—Hospital.

The Extinction of Man.

According to Dr. T. J. J. See, astronomer of the naval observatory at Washington, man has only about three million more years to live. At the end of that time the sun, which has already expended eight-ninths of its energy, will have exhausted its other ninth, and will have burned out. The whole solar system will then be bathed in perpetual night. The earth and its sister planets will continue, however, to travel on their orbits about the darkened sun. The latter will still be the centre of the solar system. There will be no sudden catastrophe marking the extermination of mankind and of other forms of life, which is comforting. The great oceans will slowly freeze over. They will ultimately become absorbed by the land. Later out atmosphere will cease to be vapour, and will lie like snow upon the earth's crust.

John Barrett.

The Mexican Herald attacks John Barrett in this fashion:—"Uncle Sam has something more deplorable to the brain than the case of a white elephant. It is the Minister Barrett, who represented the U. S. at Bangkok, Siam. Mr. Barrett sweeps through the reviews, leaving articles on the eastern question, the duty of the United States to itself first and to yellow man afterward, thoughts on the Philippines, thoughts on China, views on Japan, and considerations on the Commerce of the Orient. He is an imperialist and is as big a bore as Atkinson who is on the mugwump side."

HOW TO CURE CROUP.

M. R. Gray, who lives near Amenia, Dutchess County, N. Y., says: "Chancellor's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and asthma fails to cure." When given to a child, becomes hoarse, or worse, after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. It should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by All Dealers, Watlings & Co., General Agents.

NOTHING!

An Irish car-driver was called upon to settle a wager which turned upon his ability to answer any question that was put to him without stopping to think. The circumstances having been explained to the man, he said: "Be after asking me the question, your answer."

"Well, now, tell me what's nothin'?" "Arrah, now, shut your eyes and take a look at me," was the instant and brilliant answer.

The World looks different if you have been suffering from a headache, when it is relieved. There is nothing so depressing, as there is any one thing that will take the life and energy out of a person as quickly as a headache. What is the use, however, of suffering when there is one cure above all others for this distressing complaint.

Steams' Headache Cure which consists of a tasteless wafer that can be easily and pleasantly taken. The headache disappears, and after it is gone, no bad effect is left from the medicine, nor is the stomach disturbed. To be had of all chemists. Wholesale from A. S. Watson & Co., Ltd.

A CURE FOR CHRONIC DIARRHOEA.

A BOUT five years ago I was troubled with catarrh of the lower bowel, says C. T. Chisholm, 484 Dearborn Ave., Chicago, and although I consulted several physicians who prescribed for me, I found their remedies failed to in any way relieve me, and the trouble almost became chronic. After suffering several months, I one day concluded to try Chancellor's Cough, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and I beg to assure you that I was most agreeably surprised to find after taking two doses of the remedy that I was completely relieved of the disease that had cost me so much trouble and annoyance. I am thankful to say that I have not suffered from it since." For sale by All Dealers, Watson & Co., General Agents.

foreign, and that she is determined to maintain her ground, and vindicate her policy, at all risks. Whilst the nominal rulers of China are at bay holding their pseudo-court, in the far-away capital, and are thus bitterly and relentlessly impelled by this spirit of mad antagonism, there can be no reasonable hope of a permanent settlement. We have before hinted that we think that no lasting peace can be arranged whilst the chief actors in the recent drama of blood are allowed to continue to snap their fingers at the powers, from their present vantage ground. It is not at all improbable, was hinted by the German Consul, on his visit to the Viceroy at Nanking, that even yet, foreign troops and battleships may have to ascend the Yangtze, and either invade the province of Shensi, or effectually stop all supplies. This latter expedition has already been attempted, at Shanghai, as far as the supplies of war material is concerned, and the outcome appears to be unanimous, in this determination, except Japan, whose merchants seem to be profiting by China's present need. It may become necessary to prohibit, not only the importation of such imports, but even of food supplies, whereupon there will be great misery among the people, rousing in their heart a bitter hatred, where diplomacy would advise a policy of conciliation. On the whole, the present outlook appears to be very unsatisfactory, though, on the other hand, with a people like the Chinese, we may never know how soon and how completely all organized opposition may fall to the ground.

ORDER OF CHURCH SERVICES AT ST. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL—ADVENT SUNDAY, DEC. 2.
Matins, 11 a.m.—Responses, Ferial: Venite, Gosa; Psalmus; Gosa, Tallis; Odeleye and Battisbille; Benedicte, Winchester in E flat; Jubilate, Hayes in F; Antiphon: Sleepers wake, a voice is calling—Mendesbille; Hymn, 241; Kyrie, Hopkins in F; Offertory Hymn, 51.

EVENSONG—5.30 p.m.—Responses, Ferial; Psalmus, Tardis and Flintoff; Magnificat, Hayes in F flat; Nunc Dimittis, Rimbault and Battisbille; Benedicte, Winchester in E flat; Hymn, 47, 48; Psalmus—Antiphon: Assisi. According to the evidence of Mrs. Mainit she met her husband at a garden party, where he fell in love with her. She did not return his love at first, but got to like him afterwards and ran away with him and they were married in a Registry office in London. Ten days afterwards the accused sailed for Siam. It was against the rule of the Siamese Civil Service for students to marry whilst studying. Her husband was very miserable at being parted from her, and wrote her affectionate letters. She wrote affectionate letters to him, fairly loving letters. They were not genuine—she wrote them because she thought he would be disappointed if he did not get such letters. Her husband sent her £150 and being anxious to come out started for Singapore in the Sankt Maria. During the voyage she learned that the position her husband could give her in Siam was not, what she had been led to believe and she determined to return to England. She booked her passage home by the Kanagawa Maru, and went on board that vessel. When she arrived in Singapore there was a letter saying that her mother was dying. She told accused that was the reason she wanted to go home again. When they were sitting together on deck after dinner accused produced the revolver, but showed no intention of shooting her—only of shooting himself. The defence was that the shooting was an accident. The jury found a unanimous verdict of not guilty.

PNEUMONIA PREVENTED.

AMONG the tens of thousands who have joined Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and grippe during the past few years, to our knowledge, not a single case has resulted in pneumonia. Thus, Whitefield & Co., 240 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, one of the most prominent racial druggists in that city, in speaking of this, says: "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for grippe in many cases, as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery, but also counters any tendency of grippe to result in pneumonia. Count von Waldersse, the Commander-in-chief, will not, therefore, leave for Nanking as intended, but remains at Peking.

The rumour that the French have advanced into Shensi is unfounded.

The 'Kanagawa Maru' Shooting Case.

The trial of the Siamese named Nai Mainit on a charge of shooting his wife on board the Kenagawa Maru on 31st August, in Singapore harbour, was concluded on November 23 at Singapore Assizes. According to the evidence of Mrs. Mainit she met her husband at a garden party, where he fell in love with her. She did not return his love at first, but got to like him afterwards and ran away with him and they were married in a Registry office in London. Ten days afterwards the accused sailed for Siam. Prohibition Notification Ignored.

SHANGHAI, Dec. 1, 1.30 p.m.

The Shanghai Arsenal has shipped this week large amounts of arms and munitions of war and under-sea mines to Kiangyin and Nanking.

The Chinese Customs officials entirely ignore the prohibition notice of the Powers with regard to the import of arms.

CHINA AND THE POWERS.

LONDON, 29th November.

The Standard's correspondent at Berlin states that Germany has informed the United States that she is willing to waive her demand for the execution of the leading Chinese offenders.

BRITISH SOUTH AFRICA.

It is stated that a general rising at the Cape is improbable and that the Government is prepared for any eventuality.

Do Wet and Stoyu occupied Devetashor, the garrison holding the neighbouring heights. General Knox afterwards reoccupied Devetashor. The garrison of 400 with two gongs had surrendered after losing 16 killed and 42 wounded.

FRANCE AND THE BOERS.

It is understood that Mr. Kruger, when conversing with M. Delcassé, sought to ascertain the attitude of France in certain eventualities. M. Delcassé maintained the statement made in the Chamber last March that France would not take the initiative.

Mr. Kruger made no specific proposal. The French Chamber unanimously voted its sincere and sympathetic support to Mr. Kruger on the occasion of his visit.

THE ILLNESS OF THE TSAR.

The Tsar is gaining strength.

CANTON NOTES.

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

CANTON, November 30.

Liu I, the leader of the Black Flag, has arrived in this city and with him the remaining part of his force. Their boats are at the Tsin-tse Ma Pau, and there they will remain till a camping ground has been prepared for their reception.

Liu I has paid his official visit. He was detained at Ying Tak Lee on the downward journey to inquire as to the destruction of the mission church and other depredations there by some of his men, when on their way to the north.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The mandarins do not appear to have come to a decision with regard to Dr. Young Heung Po, who is charged with complicity in the dyanmite outrage. He has been examined several times, but with the exception of the letter, which he dictated, nothing has been obtained from him by fraud, no satisfactory evidence of his guilt has come to light.

Another arrest has taken place in connection with the murder of the military officer, Young. The authorities believe they have now got the man who planned the assassination. This case shows that the Ko Lao Hui has many adherents in south China, a fact that was not generally known.

Army Reform.

Nov. 12.—The Daily Mail states that the scheme for Army Reform has been prepared whereby our troops will receive two months' field training instead of six weeks and intensive areas of war will be acquired.

The Daily Mail says the Army Reform scheme operates early next year, and that four months will be devoted to Company training, including scouting and Battalion manoeuvres and two grand manoeuvres.

The allowance of ammunition will be largely increased and an extra musketry officer will be necessary for promotion of officers.
